JUN 09 2011

On March 18, 1966, after the house lights had dimmed, the audience waited expectantly as Mr. George Moleux approached the podium. Eyes twinkling, he turned to the band, smiled, and raised his hands. On the downbeat, the band began the vibrant and melodious concert march, THE SPIRIT OF MARSHFIELD. Inspired by the performance of the Marshfield Band at various functions, Mr. Moleux, formerly of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, composed this march and dedicated it to the Marshfield band and its conductor, Burton Cowgill.

What is the Spirit of Marshfield? It is the driving force which spurs the students on to achieve goals. It is their interest, their participation, their industry, their excitement, and their unity. It is their loyalty to school activities, their devotion to the town. Most of all, it is the dedicated feeling and enthusiasm of the administration, the faculty, and the students in all the school's activities.

Superintendent of Schools

Administration

"For me, the spirit of Marshfield is the respect we have for human dignity and worth of each individual. What really counts in life and in school is not solely the accomplishments we achieve, but also the qualities of mind and spirit we possess. Excellence should not and, indeed, is not restricted to any segment of society; excellence is rather the progress of each individual towards the realization of his own potential."

Laurence F. Greene
Superintendent of Schools

School Committee

Mr. David Ellis, Mr. Frank Burridge, Mr. Richard Ketchum, Mr. John Clancy, Mr. Alvin Bicknell.

Mr. Burgess, Assistant Superintendent

Mr. Romeo, Principal

As a class you have faced and accepted the challenges of the changes in your educational program at Marshfield High School, for we have been improving, experimenting, and implementing. As individuals you have extended yourselves, for the most part, to the competition which educational success appears to warrant. You have given of yourselves to the demands of the school: socially, athletically, and academically. We have been proud of you; we know that we shall continue to be proud as we follow you in your futures. As you leave us, we would like to have you be constantly aware that "The roaring street is hung for miles with fierce electric fire." May your lives bring you happiness and contentment.

James P. Romeo
Principal

Mr. Erickson and Mr. Anderson, Vice Principals

Miss Roberta Higgins

DEDICATION

To you, Miss Higgins, we dedicate this yearbook in appreciation for the four long years you were our class adviser. From the freshman to the senior year you guided us through dances, plays, bake sales, and class activities without getting the ulcer you expected. Your patience, perseverance, and purpose made our class strong. For everything you have done for us, we thank you.

To you, Mr. Babb, we dedicate this yearbook in gratitude for your enthusiasm in bringing to our school new ideas for the improvement of character and curriculum. Through the Key Club you have shown the school and the town the ability of teen-agers to work for the good of the town. Through sports you have shown us fair play and sportsmanship. Through P. D. classes you have given us a firsthand look at today's social problems. We appreciate your presence at M.H.S.

Mr. Charles E. Babb

FACULTY

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The function of the English Department is to give each student a thorough knowledge of the English language, so that he will be well able to adapt to and be a contributing member of society.

STANDING: Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Ross, Mr. Flammia, Mr. Grey, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Dibble. SITTING: Miss Higgins, Mrs. Etelman, chairman, Mrs. Peterson.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

The Math Department is responsible for giving the student the kind of knowledge that will enable him to go on to further education, and an education that will aid him in earning his own living.

STANDING: Mr. Pratt, Mr. MacDonald, Mrs. Forest. SITTING: Mr. Scott, chairman.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

In an age in which science is constantly changing, it is the responsibility of the Science Department to keep the student abreast of the new ideas and theories which will shape the future. With an ever-increasing amount of new facilities available to the student, the M.H.S. Science Department is able to accomplish this goal.

STANDING: Mr. Putnam, Mr. Searfoss. SITTING: Mr. Meunier, Mr. Yokobosky, chairman.

Mrs. Barbara Saunders, Miss Roberta Beaupre, Mr. David MacDonald, Mrs. Helen Brown, Chairman.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Language offers daily class-work with oral-aural materials, based on the use of dictation, lectures, question-and answer and audio aids, plus a reasonable facility in reading of increasingly difficult material.

Miss Elizabeth Ellard, Chairman, Mr. Louis Flammia, Mr. Stanley Jackson.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

The purpose of this course is to contribute to intelligent economic citizenship through a study of business.

SPECIAL STUDIES

This newly instituted class is designed to help those students who need assistance in their work.

Mr. Lawrence Lambrose

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

These courses acquaint the student with the history of mankind. They deal with man's progress from the earliest forms of civilization to our present forms of government.

Mr. Charles Babb, Mr. Robert Marshall, Miss Roberta Beaupre, Mr. Gerard Barclay, chairman

Mr. Stanley Jackson, Mr. John Braithewaite, Chairman, Miss Gail Roycroft

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

The Guidance Department in Marshfield High School exists to help the student understand himself as an individual, and realize his highest potential.

Miss Helen Andrews

LIBRARIAN

The library makes available reading and research materials necessary to enrich the individual interests and lives of the students and at the same time to provide informative and laboratory materials to complement and supplement classroom presentations.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

These courses instruct girls in the arts of cooking, sewing, and the care of a home.

Miss Phyllis Loring

NURSE

The nurse takes care of our health needs.

Mrs. Mary Smith

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

These courses provide instruction in Mechanical Drawing, Woodworking, and Basic Mechanics.

South Shore Tufts Club "Great Book" Award Winner: Sally Ferguson

Honored Seniors

Representatives of Marshfield High School's spirit and the desire to achieve are the 1967 "Honored Seniors." Exemplifying the school's high scholastic ideals are Mary Ann Bennet and Mary Wright, who have achieved finalist rating in the 1966-1967 National Merit Scholarship competition, and those other seniors who received Letters of Commendation for their performance. The Tufts Great Book Award was presented to Sally Ferguson by the South Shore Tufts Club for promoting "an awareness of the duties of good citizenship and in appreciation of the Humanities throughout life." These same attributes, with emphasis on good citizenship, led the faculty to finalize the nomination, made by the senior class, of Judith Anderson as the D.A.R. Girl. The school body elected Lenny Bicknell as its Good Government Day Representative for his good citizenship and his leadership ability. Chosen by the faculty were Judith Anderson, Robert Chandler, and William Biagini as those students best able to represent Marshfield High School at Girls' State and Boys' State. William Biagini will be awarded the Bausch and Lomb Science Award at the 1967 Graduation Exercises for retaining the highest overall science average during his years at Marshfield High School.

The Senior Class Play

On March 10, the Senior Class of MHS presented "Head in the Clouds," a comedy in two acts by Marrijane and Joseph Hayes. It is the story of a typical and attractive teenager, Amy Matthews, who is given to fantastic day-dreams. During the course of the play, the audience witnesses several of these dreams in which Amy enjoys wild triumphs over her present problems and her snob-bish rival.

With Miss Cynthia Dibble, Miss Roberta Higgins, and Mr. David MacDonald as advisers, the cast consisted of Amy Bennett, Mary Wright, Joanne Sutton, Judy Reade, Sue Flynn, Pat Yasika, Andy Kindamo, Paul Alexanderson, John Nicholson, John Merrill, and Bill Biagini.

UNDERCLASSMEN

THE JUNIOR CLASS

D. Ames, Secretary, S. Govone, Historian, S. Marshall, President, B. Bernick, Vice-President, D. Weston, Treasurer, Mrs. Saunders, Advisor.

We are finally upperclassmen! We showed our strength in athletics by supplying the varsity teams with many valuable players. Under Mrs. Saunders' able guidance our treasury has increased through various money-making schemes. Through three years at M. H. S. our experiences and knowledge have grown steadily. Our dramatic experience was greatly influenced by our memorable class play.

Through the years we have made many friends in the Class of 1967, yet we cannot help but look forward to the time when we will be seniors. When seniors, we will honestly try to maintain the fine spirit and standards of M. H. S.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

OFFICERS: Cathy Grant, treasurer, Sue Bicknell, president, Miss Beaupre, advisor, Mike Duane, vice-president, Chris Ring, historian, Pam Haley, secretary.

We made it! We are sophomores! We began our successful year with a dance, the "Mayflower Mixer." Our unusually profitable candy concession at the home football and basketball games was also a great aid to our treasury troubles. We tried to boost school spirit by providing a willing labor force for the float for M. H. S.'s first outdoor Thanksgiving Day rally.

Under Miss Beaupre's enthusiastic counsel we found the spirit to get much work done. All around it was a most successful year and we look forward to our last two years at M. H. S. with hope that they will be just as successful and memorable.

Does David Merrick have these problems, too?

THE JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Marshfield High School's Junior Class presented TURN BACK THE CLOCK on December 9, 1966. Linda Southard, as Evelyn Palmer, proved blondes really DO have more fun. John Gentry, as Charlie Hill, won Evie and the award for the best actor. He had some good competition from Johnny Stone, better known as Steven Marshall.

Since the setting of the play was in the 1920's, there were some great flappers in the cast. The theme concerned the age-old problem of a girl choosing the right boy. The play was a flashback, starting with Evelyn and her husband's complaining about the way their children acted. When they started remembering their past, the fun began.

THE THANKSGIVING DAY FLOAT

For the first time in the history of M. H. S. the sophomore class, under the direction of Miss Roberta Beaupre, designed and built a float for the Thanksgiving Day football rally. This giant megaphone took shape first in the hands of Jim Woodard and Jim Wallace who constructed the wire frame. Then Cheryl Hart and Ellen Reilly headed a group of sophomores who covered the frame with hand-made flowers. This is a vibrant example of the Spirit of Marshfield.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Election to the National Honor Society is the highest award that a student can receive at M.H.S. To be eligible, a candidate must exemplify the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The Honor Society is a goal reached through personal excellence and spirited participation in all school activities.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council consists of representatives of the student body. Their purpose is to promote better understanding between students and faculty, and the betterment of the entire school. The Student Council represents the spirit of the school. This year we are again supporting Kim, our foster child.

Mike Byers, President

THE TATTLER

THE TATTLER, M.H.S.'s tri-weekly newspaper, provides up-to-date reports on all school activities from sports to college acceptances. The gossip column, "Through the Keyhole," remains the perennial favorite. Humor is furnished by "Ye Raving Rambling Reporter," and the "Courtyard Interview," which give the student body a chance to air its opinions. The movie and television reviews provide the students with sound criticism about the latest shows. Under Mrs. Ross's and Mr. Flammia's able guidance, THE TATTLER remains important in our school life. THE TATTLER staff and its production are an important inspiration for school spirit.

1967 TIDE STAFF

PRODUCTION ADVISERS: Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Etelman. BUSINESS ADVISER: Miss Ellard.

As usual, the job of editor of THE TIDE is hectic from the first day to the last. However, the completed job makes it all worthwhile. Our advisers have our deepest thanks for their invaluable guidance. The entire staff has our gratitude for the many hours of effort willingly expended. Congratulations to all for a job well done.

MARSHALAIRS

The spirit of M.H.S. is reflected in the fifty vibrant voices of the Marshalairstudent body and their director, Mr. Cowgill. Several talented Marshalairstudent members each year participate in the New England District, and State Music Festivals. This year the Marshalairstudent body, together with the band, presented Christmas and Spring concerts as well as an exchange with Winstead, Connecticut.

PRACTICE SESSION FOR THE MARSHALAIRS.

GENERAL GLEE CLUB

Music is the spirit of Marshfield. From the sight and sound of the marching band to the lively notes of the Marshalairs, music expresses the feelings of the people--the intangible feelings in their hearts. An important part of the music program is the general glee club, which not only prepares students for the Marshalairs, but also gives those students who do not have the time or energy to join the Marshalairs a chance to express their feelings musically.

Mr. Cowgill is the Music Department at Marshfield High. He devotes himself to giving Marshfield the best in musical entertainment, at football games and concerts, assemblies and parades. He adds a great deal to the spirit of our school.

MEMBERS: J. Anderson, J. Struble, Mr. Adams, W. Raymond, M. Bennett, P. Alexanderson.

Meeting every Wednesday during Activity Period, the new Woodwind Quintet, under the direction of Mr. William Adams, plays music ranging from classical to contemporary. This group gives the students a new experience in music.

These students have been recommended by the Southeastern District Music Festival Committee to try out for the Massachusetts State Music Festival. Celebrating its fiftieth anniversary this year, All-State will be held at the War Memorial Auditorium in Boston.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

Audio-visual aids are an important supplement to educational enrichment. It is the function of the A-V Club to transport, operate, and maintain the movie projectors, tape recorders, record players, opaque projectors, and filmstrip projectors that the A-V program offers. The club is under the able direction of Mr. William B. Sides.

ART CLUB

The Art Club, a new addition to the school this year, is under the capable direction of Mr. Brian J. Doherty. The club gives the student a wealth of ways in which he can express himself artistically. These modes of expression range from portrait painting to fake antiquing.

STANDING: D. Forbes, K. Palmstrom, L. Tobin, P. Koutrouba, B. Sanborn, S. Judge, M. Trainer, E. Paradise, Mr. Doherty.

RECEPTIONISTS

Receptionists are a part of any school or business organization. Visitors form opinions from what they first see. Our job is to greet visitors cheerfully at all times. In doing so, this job also requires that we dress appropriately. Performing these duties efficiently and courteously is our main purpose.

LIBRARY CLUB

Members of the Library Club aid the librarian in checking in and out books, shelving them, and helping other students locate library material. The Club's Annual Paperback Book Fair, held in the fall, gives the students a chance to buy books they need for school and want for enjoyment. The funds that the members collect through this provide money for the expenses of some of the Student Librarian's special activities and for contributions to school causes.

KEY CLUB

KEY CLUB PRESIDENT, Leonard Bicknell

The aim of the Key Club is to serve the school and the community. To do this, this year's club held such activities as patrolling the football field at home games, car washes, Key Club-Kiwanis joint functions, dances, and several fund raising projects. In form, the Key Club is unique in that it is run and supported entirely by the students, with the exception of the faculty advisor of the Club's choice, and any activity it holds is a direct product of the members. The success of the club is due to the enthusiasm and interest of not only its members, but of the entire student body.

SPORTS

CHEERLEADERS

Their only goal was enthusiasm, their only score was encouragement.

STANDING: E.M. Fernandes, C. Gilbert, M. Johnson, S. Ferguson, M. Fuchs, W. Roose, M.J. Ahern. KNEELING: B. Houser.

The Cheerleaders represent the student body in their promotion of school spirit in athletic competition. They stand for Marshfield High School at both home and away games, and their conduct reflects the attitudes and behavior of the entire school. They are responsible for leading the cheers and getting the support of the crowd. Their ultimate goal is to cheer the team to victory.

The tennis team, in only its second year at Marshfield, was able to come up with another winning season. Although not as decisive as last year's 6-0 record, this year's 4 wins and 3 losses gave more boys a chance to participate and helped to establish tennis as a growing sport at Marshfield. Despite the teams apparent lack of depth, the enthusiasm of the younger and less experienced members of the team promises a bright prospect for the future.

enfield, D. Pearle, J. Barrett, B. Derr.

The 1966 Softball team won 5 and lost 5 of their games for the season. Maureen Coghlan and Ann La Forest assisted in managing the teams.

Six of the varsity members were seniors. Returning for the 1967 season are lettermen Marylou Rhodes, catching and pitching, Linda Maynard, at first base, Linda Brazao, at short stop, Betsy Henderson, at second base, Debbie Weston, center field, and Sue Bicknell, at third base. With new members joining the 1967 season, coach Mrs. Elizabeth Longhi is hoping the majority of the teams will win the majority of their games.

Preseason reports predicted that the MHS Baseball team lacked unity and had only mediocre potential. However, they did not take into consideration the fusing effects of team spirit and the desire to win. Under Coach MacConnell's inspirational leadership, the Rams become the scourge of the league. Combining a high-powered offence with strong pitching, the Rams finished third in the South Shore League with an 11-5 record.

The Marshfield Cross Country team ran into another successful season with an 8-1 record, second in the league. Captain Ed Ryan fittingly ended his phenomenal career at MHS undefeated on the South Shore. More than just an exceptional runner, Ed was the inspirational force that kept the team at peak performance.

As seems to be the trend at Marshfield, this year's football team was not only one of the smaller in the league, but also one of the better. Although the team lacked weight, it more than made up for this in ability, experience, desire, and spirit. These are the traits that annually characterize Marshfield teams.

The field hockey team had a victorious season this year. The fine coaching of Mrs. Longhi, and the unbeatable spirit of the team resulted in six wins, three ties, and no losses. Marshfield High finished the season as Co-Champions of the South Shore League. Seniors on the team included Linda Maynard, Captain, and Sue Brunette and Linda Brazao, Co-Captains. High scorers were Debby Pearle and Ann O'Connor. The girls are hoping to keep their title in a successful season next year.

Dick Welch's classy ball-handling led to many easy two pointers. Here he is about to dissect the whole Hull team.

Coach Warren Searfoss

Capt. Bob Chandler lets one fly from the top of the key. Who's got the rebound, Bob?

Take one basketball team. Add sufficient quantities of pride, poise, determination, desire, and guts. Mix in some spirit and watch closely. These dynamic ingredients result in a winning combination. Such a combination is the Rams. Built around eagerness, tenacity, and the will to win, the Rams are Tech Tourney material. Behind the sound play of seniors Bob Chandler, Leigh Mackay, and Dick Welch, the Rams have dropped only two of their first eleven decisions.

Marshfield	58	Duxbury	59
Marshfield	79	Hanover	70
Marshfield	56	Norwell	44
Marshfield	67	Holbrook	70

Leigh MacKay goes high above everyone else to put the finishing touch upon a successful drive. Harry Huddleston and John Nicholson wait for the rebound that never comes.

John Nicholson finds an open shot and is a study in concentration.

The Marshfield High School girls' basketball team has had a shot in the arm this season. The serum used was coach Dan Pierce. Thanks to him and the hardworking varsity players, the team has had a relatively successful season. Miss Cynthia Dibble, the coach for the junior varsity team, has also done an excellent job in developing good sportsmanship and spirit as well as teaching the fundamentals of basketball. Congratulations go to the whole basketball team and the coaches for representing Marshfield in girl's basketball competition.

Coaches: Miss Cynthia Dibble and Mr. Dan Pierce

Mr. Torrey Capo, THE SOUTH SHORE MIRROR

Handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring multiple staves with musical notation, including notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The notation is dense and appears to be a complex composition, possibly for a large ensemble or orchestra. The page is numbered 77 in the bottom right corner.

poco ritard I à tempo

A handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring approximately 15 staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines. The score is divided into two main sections by a large 'I' and the tempo change 'à tempo'. The first section is marked 'poco ritard' (slightly ritardando). The notation is dense, with many notes and rests, suggesting a complex piece. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and wear at the edges.
